HERRIN MINE RIOT TRIALS ARE FINANCED

BILL APPROPRIATING FUNDS FOR USE OF ATTORNEYS NOW LAW

Measure Asking $75,000 for Attorney General's Use Becomes Law Upon Failure of Governor Small to Sign Before Expiration of Ten-Day Clause—Other Capitol News

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, March 3.—A bill appropriating $75,000 for the use of the attorney general in prosecuting the Herrin mine riot trials became effective at midnight tonight, under the ten day clause, as Governor Small did not sign the measure but permitted it to reach the legislative limit without executive recognition. This is the fourth measure to become effective either in law making or legalizing acts since the assembly opened January 3. It was predicted during past weeks that the governor would take such action, in regard to the Herrin appropriation measure as the measure was an aid to the office of Attorney General Brundage, who caused legal action to be taken against the state executive and others, which resulted in the trial of the governor at Waukegan.

UNCLE JOE CANNON GIVEN AN OVATION BY HIS COLLEAGUES

Tells What He Does Not Know About Farm Credits Bill

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 3.—Representative Cannon of Illinois, "Uncle Joe" as he is known to his colleagues, received an ovation tonight such as few men have been given by the house.

The veteran of forty six years legislative service who voluntarily retired tomorrow from congress asked unanimous consent to extend his remarks in the record on what he said he did not know about the farm credits bill.

The house to a man arose and cheered him, the galleries joining in the demonstration which lasted several minutes.

"Uncle Joe" was a disconsolate figure as he walked up and down the aisles in his last night as a member of the house. He had expressed grief throughout the day at the absence of his old friend, Representative R. Mann, of Illinois, who died several months ago. The closing night of congress was not orthodox without "Jim" Man, the 86 year old veteran declared.

Mr. Cannon's whimsical humor, however, was not altogether absent. He carried in his mouth the usual long cigar as he asked for recognition to extend his remarks. His request was one of the few utterances he has made on the floor during the present session. He frequently had told friends that his presence was necessary only to make a quorum and that this was one of the reasons why he was giving way to a younger man.

New York, March 3.—The actual condition of clearing houses banks and trust companies for the week shows a deficit in reserve of $885,663. This is an increase of $16,742,190.

Army Fliers Make First Lap Safely

(By The Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, La., March 3.—Covering the 550 air line miles from San Antonio to New Orleans in six hours flying time, twelve fliers of the United States' army air service in six DeHavilland planes landed here at 3:33 p. m. today, completing the first lap of a trip to Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

The squadron left Kelly Field at San Antonio about a o. m. The only stop was at Houston, where the fliers ate lunch and rested an hour and a half. From Houston to New Orleans the flight was uninterrupted. The last 200 miles from Lake Charles was covered in two hours flat.

The first day's journey was without mishap according to Captain Thomas G. Lanphier, commanding the squadron. Low clouds interfered somewhat with visibility but there were no accidents.

MONDELL IS PANNED FOR REFUSING VOTE ON MUSCLE SHOALS

Democrats Attack Speaker and Also Start a Filibuster

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 3.—Attacks were made today in the house on Representative Mondell of Wyoming, the Republican leader and Representative Campbell, Republican, Kansas, chairman of the rules committee and Speaker Pro Tempore, for the failure to permit house votes on Henry Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals and on a resolution proposing government purchase and resale to farmers of $10,000,000 worth of nitrates and calcium arsenate.

Representative Jeffers, Democrat, of Alabama, charged the two Republican leaders with misusing their positions in denying a vote on the Muscle Shoals proposition at the behest or in accordance with the wishes and desires of the great interests such as the fertilizer power, the Chilean nitrate interests, and the "aluminum trust of this country."

Failure to bring up the nitrate bill led to a filibuster on the Democratic side. Charging that an agreement to take up the nitrate resolution had not been carried out Representative Pou of North Carolina, ranking Democrat on the rules committee gave notice that its supporters would "resort to such as we deem fair and open and force action on it."

"You have deprived the house of a vote," he shouted to Mr. Campbell and Mr. Mondell, adding later that the action of the Republican leadership was tyranny.

Representative Randall said that a filibuster had prevented action on the measure which would have authorized purchase of the Cape Cod canal. The majority leader added that he did not regard the nitrate resolution as wise legislation, and was opposed to bringing it up.

SOFT DRINK MAKER IS FOUND DEAD

(By The Associated Press)
BLOOMINGTON, Ill., March 3.—Henry Quisick, 46, soft drink maker, was found dead in the front seat of his automobile on a prominent corner here at 9:30 o'clock tonight. The head was twisted under the body on the floor on the front seat of the car. The feet were in the air. Two companions seen with him at 6:20 o'clock when the car first stopped, have not been located.

PLANNING VISIT TO SOVIET RUSSIA

Washington, March 3.—A party of senators and representatives is being organized it was learned today to visit Russia next summer as guests of the soviet government. The invitation came thru semi-official channels, according to Senator Ladd, Republican, North Dakota, who has charge of getting together an unofficial congressional delegation. A half dozen senators and two or three representatives is expected to accept.

Farm Credit Leaders Express Confidence

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 3.—The confidence report on the farm credits bill was adopted tonight by the house and the measure sent to the senate where favorable action would make it ready for the president.

Congressional leaders were confident tonight that the senate and house would reach an agreement on farm credits legislation in time for President Harding to affix his signature to the bill before sine die adjournment tomorrow.

As agreed to in conference by the house and senate managers the essential features of the combined bill remained unchanged, but broader authority was given to the private credit corporations which it would authorize. Continuation until March 1924, of the war finance corporation also would be provided for.

Managers on the part of the house explained in a formal statement to the house that the bill as agreed to in conference would create two distinct and separate rural credit organizations, the federal intermediate credit banks and the national agricultural credit corporation. The former would be placed under the control and management of the federal farm loan board and the latter under the supervision of the comptroller of the currency.

"While the two systems will furnish relief to the agricultural interests of the country," the statement said, "the federal intermediate credit banks will more particularly take care of the needs of a certain class and might come nearer than the national agricultural credit corporations in taking care of the entire needs of the general agriculture public; the national agricultural credit corporations will make certain the caring in a national way of the livestock and cooperative marketing requirements."

Organization Form.

"Your managers took into consideration also the fact that the national agricultural credit corporations will be organized along the same lines that national banks are organized, namely, by private subscription to capital and secondly, that the acceptances, collateral trust notes or debentures issued by them under the provisions of the act carry no tax exemption privileges whereas federal intermediate credit banks are capitalized by the United States government and are permitted to issue tax free debentures."

To Include Alaska.

"The managers on the part of the house agreed to the inclusion under the operation of the federal farm loan systems of a provision which will bring the territory of Alaska under the operations of the federal farm loan system and under rules and regulations to be approved by the federal farm loan board."

"The managers on the part of the house yielded to the pressure for the extension of the legal life of the war finance corporation until April 1, 1924."

"Your managers were governed by the fact that the organization of these credit banks under this bill will take some period of time and inasmuch as the war finance corporation is at present financing the rural credit needs to an extent of nearly $150,000,000 it was thought that to safeguard the rural credit interests of the country during the interval, it being agreed as a natural sequence of the coming into full operation of the two new credit agencies supplemented by increased operations of the federal land banks and the broadening of the operations of the federal reserve system to meet the needs of the agricultural interests that the operation of the war finance corporation would gradually be reduced so that the complete liquidation of this corporation might be had without an additional extension beyond that already provided for in this bill."

Interest Rate Fixed.

The house bill provides for fixing of the rate of interest to be paid by the borrowers for the national agricultural credit corporations.

MONDELL IS LAUDED BY COLLEAGUES FOR HIS LONG SERVICE

House Honors Man About to Retire from Public Life

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 3.—Frank W. Mondell, Republican leader in the house who retires tomorrow after a quarter of a century of legislative service, was presented with a silver service to be by his colleagues. The house stood in recess for half an hour while addresses of presentation and acceptance were made.

As Representative Madden, Republican, Tennessee, the Democratic leader lauded his services to state and nation, Mr. Mondell was unable to keep back the tears. He told the house it was with keen regret that he was giving up what had been such pleasant associations and that he could only hope that he had measured up, partly at least, to the high standards which Mr. Madden and Garrett had given him.

THE FIRST UNIT OF BRITISH RUM FLEET ARRIVES

Ship Said to Carry $700,000 Worth of Liquor Off Sandy Hook

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 3.—The first unit of a British rum fleet reported recently to have sailed for American waters, was reported off Sandy Hook late today by the United States coast guard service.

The vessel which took up a position in "rum row" along with nearly a dozen Bahama rum runners which assembled yesterday was described as a medium sized liner with uniformed officers and crew.

Her description was said to answer that of a steamer reported to have sailed from Glasgow with $700,000 worth of liquor.

DISCOVER MAN'S HAND ON STREET

CHICAGO, March 3.—Discovery of a man's left hand in a yard on the southwest side today started police working on a new clue as to the identity of the man whose body, minus the hands and with face charred beyond recognition by fire was found in a shallow grave near Geneva two weeks ago.

Last Sunday two hands, one white and the other of a negro were found in a street in the same vicinity as today's discovery but both showed evidence of having been amputated from embalmed bodies.

MANY BILLS HELD UP BY FILIBUSTER IN 67TH CONGRESS

Spectacular Filibuster Marks Closing Hours of Body

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 3.—Work of the 67th congress which adjourns sine die tomorrow virtually was completed late tonight but innumerable bills scheduled for enactment were blocked by an unprecedented and spectacular filibuster.

The farm credits bill however, was made ready at night sessions for submission to President Harding, both the senate and house approving the conference report on the measure.

Filibusters waged a fight to obtain a vote by the house on the senate resolution providing for purchase by the government of $10,000,000 worth of nitrates and calcium arsenate for sale to southern cotton producers.

In both house and senate they gave way to the farm credits bill but wrecked scores of minor measures and tied up the closing congress for hours. Overflowing galleries, including diplomats and high officials viewed the battle which was waged far into the night.

After nearly seven hours of the filibustering a brief truce was arranged to permit senate action on the house bill for return of enemy alien property of $10,000 and under which was passed and sent to conference. The vote on the bill was 55 to 11.

In the house as the night wore on the filibuster showed signs of disintegrating and a number of minor bills were passed without a show of fight by those who had been directing the obstruction practices.

Filibuster was called off for the executive session to consider nominations and afterwards many minor measures were allowed to come up.

Action was completed on the government employees salary reclassification bill. At the executive session hundreds of nominations, mostly postmasters were confirmed.

At midnight defeat of the senate filibuster was conceded by its managers and dropped. They said they had abandoned hope of securing action by the house on the nitrate measure and had not received sufficient support in the senate to carry on the battle.

The senate then reached an agreement to spend two hours in the consideration of minor bills.

CONGRESS' WANING HOURS MARKED BY MANY "SWAN SONGS"

76th National Session Passes Into History at Noon Today—The Inevitable Pre-Adjournment Hustle and Many Farewells Mark Closing Hours—Much Work Undone

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 3.—The waning hours tonight of the 67th congress which expires by law Sunday noon, were troubled with a pre-adjournment wrangle that gave an extraordinary touch to the final season of "swan song" and farewells to men and measures.

Night sessions were held by both senate and house to clear away the last legislative business on the calendars. Tomorrow's sessions will begin at 10 o'clock giving a two hour period for the final formalities.

President Harding will go to the capitol to sign eleventh hour bills and sharply at noon the congress will pass into history.

The congressional books were virtually closed early tonight with only one major measure, the farm credits bill, caught in the jam of the closing hours. It was held waiting most of the day while a double headed filibuster in both senate and house raged over the senate resolution providing $10,000,000 for purchase of fertilizer.

House leaders had held up the resolution and its supporters retaliated by provoking a filibuster of hours that tied house procedure in a knot. Then a sympathetic filibuster was started in the senate. Southern senators threatening action on the effort to force action on the fertilizer measure.

Scores of minor bills squeezed under the wire however, and others received their death blows. The debate turned on many subjects. Many statements praising the two years record of congress were made by Republican leaders while opposite views were voiced by their political opponents. Revision of the Japanese, declared Elihu Root, former secretary of state in an address to the newly appointed legislative body of the Committee of One Hundred on Foreign Relations at its initial meeting today.

"In the long course of the growth of civilization," Mr. Root said, "there have developed certain ways in which nations can help one another—certain good offices—mediation, conciliation, arbitration various forms of compulsion, justified only when the nation exercising it does so in asserting its rights and then it has only the right to assert its own."

The primary purpose of the Committee of One Hundred, Mr. Root said "is to get into the heads of the American people a series of non-controversial facts to which everyone would agree, but which nine tenths of the people of the United States do not know—facts which form the necessary basis of a sound reasoning upon international affairs."

U. S. HAS NO RIGHT TO INTERFERE WITH FRANCE ROOT SAYS

Speaks Plainly to One Hundred Lelislative Body

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 3.—The United States has no more right to stop France from going into the Ruhr than France would have in compelling this country to nationalize the Japanese, declared Elihu Root, former secretary of state in an address to the newly appointed legislative body of the Committee of One Hundred on Foreign Relations at its initial meeting today.

"In the long course of the growth of civilization," Mr. Root said, "there have developed certain ways in which nations can help one another—certain good offices—mediation, conciliation, arbitration various forms of compulsion, justified only when the nation exercising it does so in asserting its rights and then it has only the right to assert its own."

New plant and equipment were added to the system of the Illinois Bell Telephone company at a cost of $17,190,684 during 1922, according to the annual report of the company just made. Improvements this year will cost $17,400,000 according to the company's building program.

The net gain in the number of telephones during the last year was 45,387 and at the close of the year the company's traffic reached a daily average of 4,500,000 calls, of which more than 3,000,000 were in Chicago.

You should bear in mind that just about ten days remain for compiling and filing your income tax returns. A revenue agent will be in Jacksonville tomorrow and on some other days to give assistance to those who desire it.

Jacksonville gets many compliments these days from outside sources and reference is often made to the "forward look" in this city. No doubt Jacksonville will grow, but it is well enough to bear in mind that with cities, just as well as individuals, it is the quality rather than the size that really counts.

It is sometimes considered a popular thing to rail against capital. When you have inclination, stop and think of the many successful business enterprises now in operation that would not be possible without the investment of a large amount of money. Then there are instances where the capitalist is really entitled to sympathy because of investments which do not pay. Capital frequently does a great deal of experimental work which later helps to develop business.

Ten Jacksonville churches have joined in plans for special services during the two weeks preceding Easter. This union of effort cannot but be helpful to the community. That is, if the church members give even a reasonable amount of support to the ministers.

That this will be a great year for golf is a foregone conclusion. When one takes into account the preparations that are already being made by the committee representing the municipal league club. The time was, not so long ago, when the public looked upon golf as a sport for the wealthy. Now it is an entirely different matter and the wage earner is just as much a golf enthusiast as the banker.

THE SEASON'S CLOSE. The basketball season is ended, and now we can look forward to spring. The next thing in the athletic order is training for track, a period when the youth wears his gym suit out of doors, gets cramps in his legs, and loses his wind until he can get his second wind near the finish of the course.

STOP THE SALE AND CURE THE HABIT. Many people are getting the habit of carrying guns, as a result of fear. Considering the number of crimes, this habit may be excusable. There is only one way to cure it, however, and that is to stop the indiscriminate sale of firearms, so that dangerous citizens cannot get them. If this is done the peaceful citizen will not want a gun, and will never need one.

THE TOMB OF EGYPT. It hardly seems possible that ordinary folks can derive much inspiration from mummies, who "have had no fun for the past three thousand years." Egypt contributed her share to civilization at that time and buried most of it in the pyramids. Modern scientists and historians have had to dig for what they got from ancient Egypt; and sometimes we wonder of the digging has been worth while. In fact Egypt hid away some of her most valuable secrets, which was really a mean thing to do, considering that we could use the information. Modern science would like to know something of the engineering skill that built the pyramids. We would like to know the composition of the cement that has lasted until the present day. These things Egypt has hid from us, and has given us instead—Cleopatra and some of the most disgraceful history. It is not a fair exchange, but we will have to stand for it, until science can wrest from the silence of the Egyptian tombs the secrets which they are so jealously guarding.

PROMINENT ARTIST TO ADDRESS LOCAL CLUB

Gerrit A. Beneker of Provincetown, Mass., Coming Next Saturday to Address Jacksonville Woman's Club Members.

Gerrit A. Beneker of Provincetown, Mass., is the speaker at the regular meeting of the Jacksonville Woman's club next Saturday afternoon, and a rare treat is thus in store for the club members and their friends.

Mr. Beneker is particularly interested in painting the laboring man. In fact, he has an entirely new idea regarding the relation of art to labor. Roger W. Babson became so enthused with Mr. Beneker's idea last autumn when he spoke at Wellesley Hills, that Mr. Babson aspires to build a gallery for Mr. Beneker's pictures depicting labor.

No other artist has set up a studio in a factory, but when Mr. Beneker was asked to make paintings for the cover of a periodical to be published for the workmen of a Cleveland steel mill he asserted that the paintings must be made amidst the men he desired to interest. The "poster," "We'll Finish the Job," used by the government during the Victory Loan campaign is the work of Mr. Beneker.

Mr. Beneker comes to Jacksonville directly from engagements at Boston and Dayton, Ohio, and is enroute to St. Paul. During the winter he has spoken before many prominent clubs in the large cities of the east.

The art committee of the Woman's club is bringing him here for the regular meeting of the club next Saturday afternoon.

TRAFFIC LAST WEEK

The only reason the Wabash wasn't running more trains Friday was because all available engines were in service. In the period between 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon and 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, twenty-six freight crews were marked up to leave Decatur, this including thirteen extras, the rest time-card runs except for one light east and a double-header east, this being the 65-65x engines breaking on a trip on No. 65.

Business was heavier in all directions and a Danville paper says the yards at Tilton were blocked Thursday morning with enough loaded cars standing on the west-bound main track, unable to get into the yards, to make three full trains for Decatur. This was to be sent west as fast as engines arrived as it contained close to 30 cars of autos, auto parts and other high-class merchandise.

"Kick In"

with Betty Compson, Bert Lytell and May McAvoy
"Kick In" is a bang-up melodrama from start to finish. It's the best of all the crook plays, and it's full of action, pathos, tense moments, thrills, and suspense from the first scene to the last. No melodrama ever made had such a star cost. The cast also includes Gareth Hughes and Kathleen Clifford.
A Good Comedy in Connection

TO PRESENT TRAFFIC PLANS TO COMMITTEE

Map and Proposed Regulations Will be Brought Before Chamber of Commerce Committee Wednesday Night—Some Radical Changes Made.

A meeting of the entire traffic committee of the Chamber of Commerce will be held Wednesday evening of this week, to consider the new traffic map of the city which has been prepared by the advisory committee. The new map and the accompanying regulations will make some radical changes in the traffic rules, if they are finally adopted by the city council.

The advisory committee which made the map and formulated the new rules, consist of T. S. McVicar, chairman; F. E. Farrell, A. R. Taylor, L. S. Reid and W. A. Berryman. They had as guide in their work the reports and observations of the various intersection committees, which were appointed some time ago. It will be remembered that Mayor Crabtree requested the Chamber of Commerce to appoint a traffic committee. Three men were selected, and these picked a committee of forty, who in turn appointed the advisory committee.

Upon this last body has fallen the actual work of perfecting the plans. The new traffic map of the city has entailed considerable labor and is a real work of art. Suitable parking spaces are marked in blue, places where parking would be forbidden under the new regulations are marked in yellow, and the boulevard system to the city in red. The map and the new rules will be presented to the traffic committee at the meeting Wednesday evening, and then, if approved, they will go to the city council to form the basis of a new traffic ordinance. It has been the purpose of the committee to relieve traffic congestion in the business district, to lessen the chance of accidents on the principal streets, and to provide a boulevard system that would connect Duncan and Nichols parks. Under the proposed regulations, parking cars around the curbing of the sidewalks on the square would be forbidden, and no cars could be parked on the side streets of Main and State streets within one block of the square. Beyond the one block limit, and within a radius of two blocks, cars could be parked on one side of the street only. On the square itself parking would be permitted in the center of the streets, as at present, and around the curbing next to the park. The above regulations would hold good on all days of the week, except Saturday and Sunday, when the present rules would be in force. Suitable places for parking the surplus cars which could not find room on the square, would be provided in the adjoining vacant lots, and arrangements would be made with garages to take cars at a small fee per month.

In the new traffic plan, West State street and West College avenue would be boulevards, as would also South Main street. The rules would require every driver of a car coming into any of these thoroughfares from a side street, to come to a full stop before entering the boulevard. All cars running on the boulevards would have the right of way. Some provisions of this sort will be necessary in the near future, even if the new traffic rules are rejected, because the traffic on these principal streets is becoming so great that there is constant danger of serious accidents. Suitable markings would be provided for the boulevards, such as red stop signs and red globes at the intersections with adjacent streets.

all cotton sold in interstate commerce or for export. Congress with its decks cleared of major measures employed through the wreckage of numerous minor bills toward the end of its legislative voyage at noon Sunday. Attorney General Daugherty ordered a final decree for separation of the Lehigh Valley railroad company from its coal subsidiaries filed in the United States district court at New York. The senate passed the Sweet bill increasing the period under the war risk insurance act in which a veteran's disability will be assumed to have resulted from service extending insurance privileges. The senate voted 49 to 24, against proceeding with consideration of a resolution by Senator King, Democrat, Utah to grant authority to the president for participation in the international court of justice.

LIGHTNING PLAYS STRANGE FREAK
GREINA, Fla., March 3.—Lightning struck the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Herring at this place today, wrecked a "kiddle koop" in which their three year old infant was sleeping, burned a hole in the floor near the place where the child was sleeping and never roused it from its slumber. The parents of the child were severely shocked by the lightning.

Surprise for Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Coker.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Coker were given a very pleasant surprise Friday evening at their home east of the city. The affair was planned by a number of their friends and there were sixty-five in the company which spent a very pleasant evening at the Coker home. The playing of rook occupied the major portion of the evening and a very enjoyable time was had by all.

The self invited guests took with them a generous supply of eatables and a feast was enjoyed during the evening. This was one of the most pleasant of the numerous social affairs which the residents of that particular community are having this season.

BLOOMINGTON SOLOIST TO APPEAR HERE SOON

Stanford Hultzhizer to Appear on Program at Annual Concert of I. C. Chorus and Conservatory Orchestra March 8.

The Illinois College Chorus and Conservatory Orchestra annual concert is to be given next Thursday evening, March 8. Mr. Stanford Hultzhizer of Bloomington will appear on the program as soloist and a number of local musicians will also be heard on that occasion.

Mr. Hultzhizer, who is soloist in one of the Bloomington churches, is a former pupil of Mr. Arnold Levey of the Conservatory faculty. He possesses a baritone voice of unusual depth and richness. He will take the solo role in the "Light of Life," the closing cantata.

The local soloists will be Mrs. Ethel Black, soprano, Miss Ruth Melba Armstrong, contralto, Robert Shaw, tenor, and C. E. Drummond, tenor. Miss Clara I. Smith will be accompanist.

The program for the chorus has been made up from miscellaneous choral numbers, solos and duets from Gounod, Skelley, Engleberg and Elgar.

As for the orchestral part, several interesting new numbers will be introduced. Two suits from the Afro-English composer, Coleridge Taylor, the first, Petite Suite in four movements, and the other, a group of pieces, written as incidental music to Shakespeare's Othello, also in four movements, will be played. These pieces, which were heard by Edmund Munger, when he was abroad last summer, were purchased by him in London for the use of the Conservatory orchestra. A Yaksha Dance, a dance of Hindoo Gnomes, Oriental in color, will also be used.

The concert this year promises to be even more than usually excellent.

PAROLED CONVICT IS RETURNED TO PRISON

"Red" Hare Caught in Fight on Broadway Alley, is Taken Back to Penitentiary — Has Been Under Suspicion by Local Police.

Lloyd, alias "Red" Hare was returned to Chester penitentiary Saturday, being accompanied by a parole agent from the institution. "Red" and his brother, Lal Hare, and Jasper Johnson have been held at the local police station since early Friday morning, when they were arrested after a pitched battle at a resort in Broadway alley. "Red" Hare was released from Chester some months ago and returned to this city. Police and citizens endeavored to give him a new start, but he drifted into evil associations, and has been under suspicion by the police for sometime. When he was arrested Friday, the parole officer at Chester was notified. The parole agent arrived here Friday evening from Quincy, made his investigations Saturday and decided to take Hare back to the prison.

Hare was sent to Chester on an indefinite sentence, after being convicted of participation in the robbery of the Mackey & Davidson grocery store. Before he was brought to trial, he escaped from a county officer and left the city. However, he soon returned and was re-arrested. He was sent to Chester in March, 1919.

After his parole, Hare returned to this city and took up his residence on Broadway alley, where he was a constant way to the local police. Although he could never be caught in any misdemeanor, he has been suspected, and the fight Friday morning brought him back definitely into the hands of the law.

The parole agent, who arrived here from Quincy Friday night, brought with him another prisoner, Tommy Mitchell, who was also being returned to Chester. Mitchell had been employed at the soldiers' and sailors' home in Quincy since his parole, and had become involved in some trouble. He was lodged in the police station until Saturday afternoon, when the agent left with his two prisoners on the 4:25 Alton passenger for St. Louis, where he transferred his charges to a train for Chester.

FARM BUREAU PLANS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Canvass Priced by Mail Publicity Will Be Made in One Day—Bureau Talks of Buying Own Home.

The members of the executive committee of the farm bureau at the meeting held Saturday considered various matters relating to the business of the bureau. At various times in the past there has been discussion of the question of the purchase of an office building by the bureau.

The committee decided yesterday that when the solicitation is made for new members that an opportunity will be given to all to discuss the matter. If a building is erected or purchased the total cost will not be in excess of $11,500. The idea will be to have a building which will house the farm bureau office, provide a rest room for members and their families and also some space for seed storage.

The plans were further discussed with F. M. Higgins of Seneca relative to the drive for membership in the Illinois Agricultural association. A pamphlet has been mailed to each person member of the farm bureau and to some other prospects. In a few days a statement will go forward and at a still later date a personal letter will be sent to each member and each prospect.

Subsequent to the personal letter the purpose is to have a booster newspaper issue. March 27 there will be a school of instruction for all those who are to take part in the canvass for members, and this canvass will take place on March 28. The purpose is to have the canvassing work all done in one day's time. In this canvass memberships in both the Illinois Agricultural association and the farm bureau will be sought.

The report of L. A. Evans, who made an audit of the farm bureau books, was read and the report approved. It showed the bureau to be in satisfactory financial condition.

Members of the committee present for Saturday's session were L. A. Reed, C. S. Black, C. A. Rowe, Austin Paterson, H. E. Kitner, Nellis Crain, Samuel Darley, F. H. Jewsbury, W. H. Crum, S. H. McDevitt, O. A. Rohrer, Charles Gibbs, J. W. Arnold, T. R. Crain, George Dietrick, E. R. Hembrough, G. B. Kendall presided at the session.

Strawn Talks About Dort

There's economy, also satisfaction, in giving your car the once-over at regular intervals, and once a week is not too often.

While engineering advances and sturdy construction have developed the modern motor car to a point where it will permit of considerable neglect, there is a limit to all things and it will prove costly to cross the dead line on the question of service.

The motorist should consider his car an investment and it is a matter of good business to take care of it the same as he does his other possessions. When an automobile is allowed to run-down-at-the-wheel, the owner finds his repair bills mounting in an alarming manner.

To the average motorist some of the complicated motor cars present an unpleasant task when any service work needs to be done, but the Dort is different. Accessibility of parts was one of the first principles built into the Dort Four and it has been more prominently continued in the new Dort Six so that the owner has more fun than hard work in keeping his Dort fit and ready.

Another feature that every motorist should consider in servicing his car is that the use of so-called "pirate-parts" shortens the life of a car and causes inconvenience and worry. Dort parts are manufactured for all models of Dort cars and under no circumstances should any other parts be used.

Quite a saving can be made and much satisfaction gained from regular inspection on the part of owner and the use of legitimate parts. There is no other short continuous motoring pleasure, and that is what every owner is entitled to, whether his car is used for business or pleasure.

Queen Incubators Built to Hatch Without Trouble

QUEEN Incubators are famous for their large hatches of strong, healthy chicks that grow.

The Queen is accurately regulated, taking care of a temperature variation of 70 degrees without danger. It is built of genuine Redwood—very scarce in these days of imitation and substitution. Redwood does not absorb odor from hatching eggs. Cheaper woods and pasteboard lining in iron and tin machines retain the odors to weaken the hatching chicks.

The Queen has double walls of California Redwood, with insulation between. The Queen hot water system prevents the eggs from drying out and provides ample moisture for the hatching chick. The Queen will come nearer to running itself without any more than ordinary attention than any other incubator made.

This damper regulates your check draft and the direct draft to your fire.

Queen Brooders

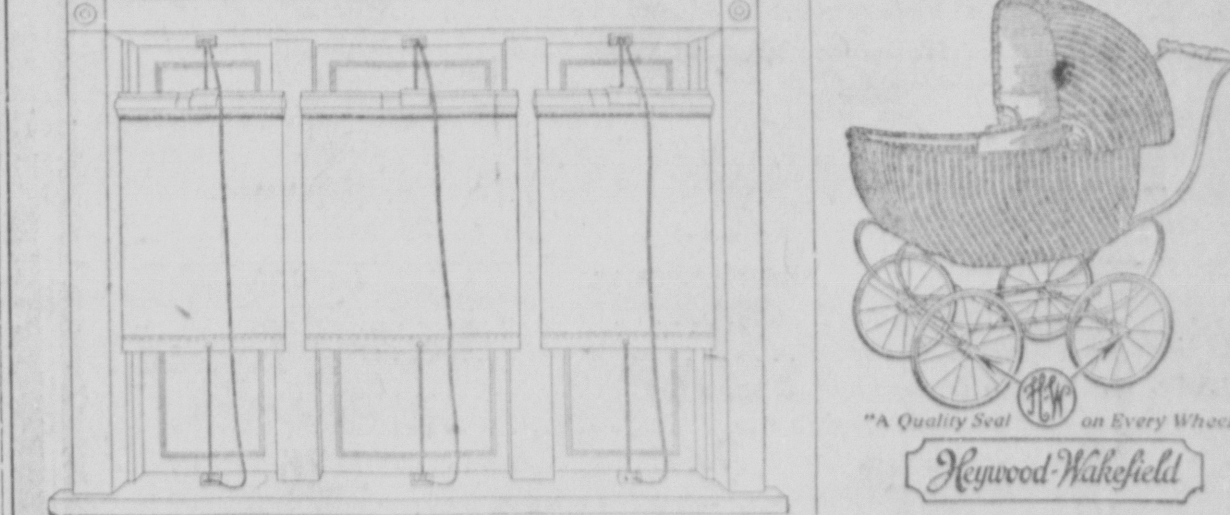

The Queen Colony Brooder is a new and improved design of brooder stove. As will be seen from the illustration, the check and draft lids are cast together and operated together. Thus, when the fire is too hot, the wafer expands and closes the draft and opens the check, both at the same time. When it is too cool, the wafer contracts and closes the check and opens the draft. This keeps an even heat all the time, night and day, in cold weather or warm, and does it automatically. You don't have to pay any attention to it whatsoever. Just set the regulator for the proper temperature at the start of the season—it will do the rest.

The Queen stove burns any kind of fuel with equally satisfactory results.

Eight Records Shattered at Illinois Relay

CARNIVAL FASTEST IN HISTORY WITH HUNDREDS ENTERED

Forty-Seven Schools Represented—Eight Carnival Records Broken—American Record for 75-Yard Dash Tied—Relays Well Divided, No Team Winning Two Races

URBANA, Ill., March 3.—Eight carnival records were shattered, two were tied and one was equalled in the sixth annual University of Illinois relay carnival which attracted a record-breaking entry of nearly 600 athletes representing forty-seven universities and colleges here today. The American record for the 75-yard dash also was tied. Emerson Norton, the University of Kansas star, captured the honors in the all-around championship competition.

Record-breaking performances resulted in nearly half of the events due to the spirited competition, the fastest in the history of the carnival. The first mark to go was in the two mile college relay which was captured by Carleton College in 8:25, beating the former record of 8:32 3-5, established by Cornell College of Iowa in 1921. Wilson ow Iowa, took the next shot at the record smashing by lowering his own record in the 300 yard dash, covering the distance in 31:4-5, and beating the record in 32:1-5 hung up last year.

Van Orden of Michigan rated as the best shotputter in the West. Central College of Fayette, Missouri, cracked the college medley mark of 9:05 2-5 by winning the event in 8:44 3-5.

Reinke of Michigan captured the 1,000 yard run in the record-breaking time of 2:19 4-5, beating the best previous record made by Winter of Minnesota last year.

Iowa Beats Own Record. The University of Iowa relay team lowered its own record of 3:27 2-5 in the one mile University Relay by stepping the distance in 3:26.

Wahush cut into the record breaking by taking the one mile college relay in 3:34 1-5, beating his own record of 3:36 4-5 established five years ago.

Dehart Hubbard, negro star from the University of Michigan, wound up the record-breaking with a leap of 23 feet, 3-4 inches in the running broad jump. The carnival record of 22 feet, 8 1-4 inches was made by Earl Gillilan of Notre Dame in 1918.

Robert Ayers, the University of Illinois flyer tied the American and Illinois carnival record for the 75 yard dash when he broke the tape ahead of seven other starters in :07 3-5.

Johnson of Illinois equalled the

I. S. D. AGAIN SHOWS MISSOURI FAST GAME

School For Deaf Trims Missouri Mutes By Score of 20 to 19. Locals Win By Fast Work in Second Half. Will Play J. H. S. This Week.

The Illinois School for the Deaf defeated the Missouri School for the Deaf Saturday night in a hard fought game on the latter's floor at Fulton, Mo., according to a message received by Col. O. C. Smith, managing officer of the school here. The score was 20 to 19 in favor of the local five.

At the end of the first half the score stood 10 to 2 in favor of the Missouri quintet. Things looked bad, but in the second half the Illinois boys came back and in a whirlwind of basket shooting and close guarding, outplayed and outscored their rivals.

The School for the Deaf team has one more game before the close of the season, and that with the Jacksonville high school team. It is understood that this will be played sometime this week. Those who have followed the playing of the two teams will be interested to witness this match. It will undoubtedly be a close and fast contest.

Thus far Illinois has shown itself more than a match for Missouri. During the football season just past, the local School for the Deaf defeated their rivals on the local athletic field.

OFFICIALS PICK ALL STAR TOURNEY TEAMS

First and Second Teams Are Chosen by C. E. Brockman and C. J. Jacoby Jr.—Chandlerville Has Three Men on First Team—Jacksonville High Gets Hunt at Guard

Officials All Star Teams

(By C. E. Brockman and C. J. Jacoby, Jr.)

First Team	Second Team
*Harper, Chandlerville	F Deatherage, Jacksonville.
Putman, Mt. Sterling	F Bryan, Waverly
McDonald, Chandlerville	C *Buss, Mt. Sterling
Hunt, Jacksonville	G William Cook, Chandlerville
Walter Cook, Chandlerville	G Hughes, Waverly
*—Captain.

In choosing an All Star team from the work shown by the players of the various teams at the tournament, there are a few men who have stood out in the games that they have played and it is an easy matter to choose them but it is entirely different in the matter of selecting a center and saying that he is the best man that has shown. The scarcity of centers who really displayed a knowledge of the fine points of play at center has been a noticeable feature of the tournament that closed last night.

There are so many angles that enter into the work of the pivot man that can make or break a team. Getting the tip of the ball when tossed up at center is a great advantage to a team but it is a small part of the center's work as the entire team play is centered around him all of the time. We have chosen McDonald of Chandlerville as doing the best work in the Tournament and Buss of Mt. Sterling as the next best man. Other centers who received consideration are Syrcle, Griggsville; R. Ham, Chambersburg; Putnam, Jacksonville; Englund, White Hall; Knoepfel, Bluffs.

Harper of Chandlerville and Putman of Mt. Sterling are easily the class of the forwards. They are both fast men and have good eyes and form for dropping the ball thru the hoop for scores. They can shoot from any place on the floor. The next best men are Deatherage of Jacksonville and Bryan of Waverly; Hylder, Bluffs; Wright, Murrayville; E. Ham, Chambersburg; Hunter, Jacksonville; Walsh, Mercedosa; Simpson, Chandlerville and Goode, White Hall are forwards that are above the average and attracted attention in the games that they played.

The Cook brothers of Chandlerville make the best pair of guards that any team has shown. They play well together and stopped the scoring of teams that boasted of good forwards and centers. There are two guards who have shown that they are the backbone of their teams and displayed individual work which places them among the best. These men are Hunt of Jacksonville and Hughes of Waverly. The work of Walter Cook of Chandlerville in the championship game places him on the first team with Hunt of Jacksonville. William Cook of Chandlerville and Hughes of Waverly are selected for the second team. Reynolds and Gaddis of Mt. Sterling, King of Murrayville, Kirsch of Griggsville, and Hopper of Jacksonville have all done good work.

We have selected Harper of Chandlerville and Buss of Mt. Sterling as the captains of the honorary teams because of their consistent work. Chandlerville has played the most consistent ball during the tournament and is well worthy to represent the District at the Sectional Tournament next week. Their men have been in good physical condition and have played a clean fast game at all times. They had the hardest schedule as they were the only team that had to play five games to win the championship and they defeated two favorites when they conquered Bluffs and Jacksonville.

CHANDLERVILLE FIVE WINS CHAMPIONSHIP FROM MT. STERLING

Cass County Aggregation Runs True to Form by Winning the Final Game by a Score of 27 to 14—Winners Show one of the Best Balanced Teams in the Tournament

Running true to form Chandlerville high school won the final game and the district title last night when she defeated Mt. Sterling in a decisive manner by a score of 27 to 14.

The winners played the first and last games of the tournament, taking part in five games. They showed as much "pep" in the final game as in the first one. This speaks well for the physical condition of the squad and shows that condition plays an important part in basketball.

There were other teams in the tournament which probably were as good as Chandlerville from a playing standpoint but the men lacked in condition and this is the answer to the story. It might well be taken to heart by some of the contesting teams which were eliminated in the earlier games of the tournament.

The championship game despite the fact that Jacksonville was not one of the contestants, was witnessed by a large crowd. Both teams played in whirlwind fashion and despite the high tension, but few fouls were made. The teams both had rooters present and the Jacksonville students divided their enthusiasm about evenly between the teams.

Chandlerville took the lead a few minutes after play started and was never headed. At the quarter the score was 8 to 2 in favor of Chandlerville. In the second quarter, Mt. Sterling pepped up and outplayed the winner scoring three baskets in rapid succession. Chandlerville made two baskets in one quarter, making the score at the half 12 to 8 in favor of the final winners.

At the beginning of the second half Chandlerville got to going and soon attained a comfortable lead. Mt. Sterling fought strenuously but was unable to hold Vaughn, McDonald and Harper who dropped in six baskets between them, while Mt. Sterling was held to two field baskets and two free throws. Walter Cook also dropped in a field basket in the second half.

Reynolds and Gaddis, Mt. Sterling's guards had a busy evening cut out for them. They did some fine work but with three men in the game and all dangerous they were unable to hold the Cass county boys.

Putman who proved to be one of the best forwards in the tournament was up against a hard proposition in the Cook brothers, guards of the Chandlerville team. He was kept closely guarded thru out the evening but managed to break away and score two baskets during the game.

The winners displayed some of the best passing seen here this season and Mt. Sterling seemed unable to stop them from advancing the ball, the toward the close of the game they were able to stop Harper who had run wild in the first half.

Officiating Excellent. The officiating during the tournament was the best that has been seen here and we have seen every tournament since the first one was played in 1911.

Everybody knows that Brockman is one of the best officials who has ever worked here. As we said before the tournament wouldn't seem like home without "Brock" Jacoby proved an able co-worker of Brockman and proved to be an official of high class. He keeps the game moving, calls them as he sees them and won the favor of the crowd from the first. He received many compliments from the players in the championship game and from the spectators for his excellent work.

There was lots of gloom in Jacksonville about noon Saturday when Chandlerville took the measure of Jacksonville in one of the semi-finals. The local terrors fought hard but the visitors had it on them for condition and carried them too fast and when the final whistle sounded, were on the long end of 16 to 14 score. Murrayville and Mt. Sterling played the first game of the semi-finals Saturday morning. The Mt. Sterling team won out by a score of 18 to 14. The game was hard fought and Murrayville held the winners to a 7 to 5 score in the first half. The relative difference was maintained until the final whistle.

DUAL SWIMMING MEET WON BY ILLINOIS

URBANA, Ill., March 3.—Illinois defeated Chicago in a dual swimming meet here tonight in which three tank records were broken and one conference record bettered. The water basketball game ended in a two to two tie after two overtime periods had been played and the tie could not be broken. Taylor, Illinois broke the 75 foot tank record by making the distance in :33 3-5.

He bettered the conference record for the sixty foot plunge by making it in :16 4-5 but the record does not stand because it was not made in a conference meet. Eowen, Illinois did the 150 foot back stroke in 1:59 for a tank record.

STORM ENDS THE
SUMMER WEATHER

(By The Associated Press)

OMAHA, Neb., March 3.—One of the worst storms of the winter brought to an end the summer-like weather that Nebraska and Western Iowa enjoyed for several days. Rain fell over the greater part of Nebraska today and changed to snow in the afternoon. Sioux City reported that a blizzard was raging in that section and was especially severe in eastern South Dakota, northwestern Iowa and northern Nebraska. Train service at Sioux City was reported badly crippled with trains battling huge drifts.

Grain experts declared today that the rain and snow was of inestimable value to growing winter wheat.

MEMBERS BANDIT
BAND SENTENCED

CHICAGO, March 3.—Two members of a bandit band were found guilty and punishment fixed at hanging and a third sentenced to a life imprisonment by a jury for the murder of "Hand-some Joe" Lannus, an automobile sales agent.

The jurors fixed the death penalty for "Larry" Heffernan, leader of the band, whose sweetheart turned state's evidence and told how the holdup which led to Lannus' death was planned in her apartment, and for William Cramer, Otto Christensen received the life sentence.

Washington, March 3.—Senator Glass, of Virginia, nominated and confirmed yesterday to be one of the three Democratic members of the world war debt funding commission, today declined the appointment.

LOOK FOR FAST GAME
TOMORROW NIGHT

Petersburg Independents Champs Will Meet Dokays In Basket Ball Battle.

Petersburg, District Independent Champs, will meet the Dokay Tigers tomorrow night in what is predicted to be the fastest game played by the Dokays this season.

Several weeks ago the Dokays met a defeat by a very close margin at the hands of the Petersburg team and will go into the game tomorrow night to get revenge.

Petersburg won the District Independent Tournament and went thru to the semi-finals in the State Meet only to be defeated by Cambridge by a small score, who later won the State Tournament. Petersburg has about 16 scalps to their credit which proves that they have "Some Team."

This is not worrying the Tigers in the least and they intend to put all they have in tomorrow night's game. Capt. Wood, Smith and Covey are all expected to be in the fray tomorrow night. The new recruits of the Dokays this season, Struck and Kennedy, are proving better in each game and with the assistance of "Saul" Reynolds, who held Beers completely helpless in the New Berlin game, and Jones should give the Dokays a win over Petersburg.

With the previous newspaper publicity given the above teams it is expected that a record attendance will be on hand at the game. The game tomorrow night will be called at 8:15 P. M. at the David Prince Gymnasium and Coach Mitchell will officiate as Referee.

The Dokays-Petersburg game will be preceded by a curtain raiser between the White Star Independents and Boy Scout Troop 4 of this city.

Merchants Have Prepared Offerings That Will Make Semi-Annual Dollar Day A Memorable Event

Everything is in readiness for Jacksonville's 1923 Spring Dollar Day. The sentence means that the merchants of the city, co-operating in this movement, have genuine bargain offerings and these offerings are of the seasonable kind that will be certain to attract a great many shoppers to the business district next Tuesday.

Additional interest is given this event from the fact that people will remember the buying opportunities that were offered on the last Jacksonville Dollar Day. Men and women came to the city from a wide area and they found even more bargains than the merchants advertised.

The merchants co-operating in this semi-annual event are all stable Jacksonville business men and they can be depended upon to see to it that bargain hunters are not disappointed.

By glancing thru the advertisements which appear in the Journal this morning readers will be convinced that the special prices have not been made on mere luxuries or things than can be classed as non-essential. The low figures are given on goods that are seasonal and that are needed at this time of the year.

HOWITZER COMPANY SECURES ARMORY

Adjutant General's Office Authorizes Lease on Second Floor of Ehnie Building—Fine Quarters Will Be Spun to Enlistments.

The second floor of the Ehnie building on East State street has been leased by the state of Illinois as an armory for the local Howitzer company. Capt. Wesley James of the company made this announcement yesterday, stating that Colonel Tripp, as a representative of the state, had been here to complete the necessary arrangements.

The lease is to become effective April 1 and the company is thus assured fine quarters. The main room on the second floor of the Ehnie building is 75x50 feet in general dimensions and there are also ante-rooms. In addition the company will have the room to the north, which has been used as a cigar factory.

Showers are to be installed and some other betterments made which will all go to make the quarters the better for drill and general company purposes.

Privates Fitzgerald and LaRue have recently been released from the company because of their enlistment in the navy. This leaves two additional vacancies and recruits for them are needed. Capt. James rightly believes that the securing of such convenient and commodious quarters for armory purposes will have the effect of increasing interest in the company and make it much easier to secure recruits.

April 4th is the day set for the annual inspection by the federal government and Colonel Nelson, regular army officer, will be present to give this work the necessary attention.

JUNIOR RED CROSS IS AGAIN WITH US

Executive Board of Parent Organization Meets to Reorganize Junior Red Cross.

Miss Grace Carter was named as head of a committee to reorganize the Junior Red Cross in this city at the regular meeting of the executive board of the Red Cross Friday evening. Miss Carter will make her appeal thru the schools of the city, interesting the teachers in the work. Many will remember the excellent work of the young people's organization in war time.

The executive secretary, Miss Katherine Sullivan, reported that she had served 126 cases during the past month; 29 were from the county; 60 from the State hospital; 31 from Jacksonville, and 6 transients.

The society received a box of tropical fruits recently for one of the men in the State Hospital. The box was sent from San Juan, Porto Rico.

WASHINGTON TEA RAISES MONEY FOR HOSPITAL

A Washington Tea given by the Ashland Woman's club has netted $13.25 for the isolation building project of the Passavant Hospital. Mrs. Edwin Beggs Beggs of Ashland is the president of the club and forwarded the money to Mrs. E. W. Brown, chairman of the Isolation ward committee.

This proof of the Ashland ladies' interest in the project shows that they realize that the hospital is not merely local in scope but is needed by all of Morgan county and the neighboring counties.

FARM SUPPLY SALE IV HELD HERE SATURDAY

Good Bargains Obtained By Farmers Who Attended Sale of Implements—Prices Were Reasonable and Auction Proved Success.

The advertised sale of farm implements, buggies, wagons, etc., was held at the store of the Jacksonville Farm Supply Co., from 10:30 to 2:30 Saturday. J. L. Henry and C. M. Strawn were auctioneers and Sam Cann was the clerk. Farmers who failed to attend the sale missed some good bargains.

T. O. Knapp bought a hay loader for $17, and other articles sold accordingly. Following are some of the prices paid:

Walking plow, $12.
Corn planters, $40.
Riding cultivators, $20 to $42.
Farm wagon, $80.
Storm buggy, $80.

These prices for new articles were exceptionally low, as most of the goods would bring almost double their price at retail. The Farm Supply Co., had some surplus stock, for which they could not find room when they closed their retail store on West Court street, and the present sale was the method used to dispose of the goods.

WHAT PROHIBITION HAS ACCOMPLISHED

In discussing recently some of the "effects of Prohibition," Dr. Thomas W. Smith presented the following facts:

"But Prohibition is responsible for increase of Crime!"

What are the facts? In Birmingham, Ala., a practically new jail, costing $100,000, and used before Alabama voted dry, for a long time stood empty and is now used for juvenile court.

In Pittsburgh the county jail has $40 cells and before Prohibition used often to hold 940 prisoners. Today 315 cells are empty.

In Seattle, a jail accommodating 300 prisoners last year had only 95 occupants.

State prison, Salt Lake City, the prisoners in 1916 numbered 297—in 1921 only 129.

Look at the Bridewell, Chicago. In 1917 housed 17,748. In 1921—only 9,653—a decrease of 8,095. In 1917 there were 61 commitments to the Bridewell for wife and child abandonment.

In 1921 only one such commitment. Again, let us quote Judge Gemmill who has been collecting statistics for seven years.

Since prohibition became the law—20 percent of the prisoners in U. S. have been without prisoners. And in 80 percent of them the number of prisoners has been reduced anywhere from 15 to 80 percent.

What about the effects on industry?

President Badman, of the Bessemer County, Birmingham, Ala., says: "No matter how much moonshine was disposed of in 1921 around our mining camps—it is not a drop in the bucket compared to former conditions."

President Kresge of Detroit: "Many good business men who formerly opposed prohibition now favor it. It is a good business."

R. B. Patterson of Spokane: "Most of my friends who originally opposed prohibition are now heartily in favor of it." Leslie Huffman of Denver: "If prohibition were put to vote today, 90 percent of the business men who had opposed it would favor it."

President Bird W. Spencer of the People's Bank, Passaic, N. J., says the "Savings deposits in that city increased last year $1,500,000."

Same Story All Over America! Homes better cared for, women and children better clothed—savings deposits increased 33 1-3 percent. As ever, Colonel Forster, Administrator of the Narcotic Division in Washington, informs us that "Victims of the drug habit in practically every instance are young men and women, often in their teens. Rarely are they alcoholics."

The New York Health department says that out of 1403 such addicts only twelve of them said they were driven to it by the desire for alcohol.

In the Los Angeles Narcotic Clinic only 4 out of 500 patients had been users of alcohol. Narcotism another variety of demon we have to fight not so numerous but so deadly.

As for the pathetic plea for Light Wines and Beers.

Let it be remembered that the vast bulk of the liquor traffic was made up of beers of all kinds—some affirm 92 percent of the business. And no one has discovered a method of selling light wines and beers without bringing back the saloon.

"The Whisky devil can never be driven out by the beer beetle."

What as to health?

The statistician of the New York Anti-Tuberculosis Society places prohibition as the first cause accounting for the decrease of Tuberculosis in the last four years.

Dr. Kellogg of the Battle Creek Sanitarium says: "The hospital wards formerly devoted to the care of men suffering from delirium tremens and acute insanity due to liquor are practically empty. The number of persons committed to insane asylums because of liquor has decreased enormously."

What as to family welfare? Please note the number of families which the charity organization societies of various cities have had to care for because drink crippled the home. Boston holds the enormous decrease in such families in the four years from 1917 to 1921.

In St. Louis such families decreased from 412 in 1917 to 23 in 1921. Chicago from 625 to 61. Boston from 987 to 73. Cleveland from 782 to 245. Rochester from 140 to 34.

In all our cities the decrease of families crippled from liquor ranges from 64 percent to 100 percent. These percentages are taken from the accurate reports of scores of various welfare and social service societies. There is no prejudice in them—merely cold figures.

Think of the children of America!

Where thousands have been born in former years with the poison in their blood or with feeble minds due to hard drinking parents—Now thousands will be born with a fair chance in body and mind for life's goal.

Where thousands formerly were doomed to orphan asylums because of drunken fathers and mothers—Now they can be brought up in loving homes.

What as to the increase in the number of drug addicts?

Opponents of prohibition say: "We told you so—take away drink and the people will resort to drugs." Strange logic—for the same advocates of drink affirm that there is just as much drinking.

$525.00 factory will buy the world beater—CHEVROLET touring. J. F. CLAUS Motor Co., sell them.

About 4,800,000 axes are made each year in the United States. Fur of the jack rabbit is extensively utilized for felt hats.

January Was Another 100,000 Month for Ford Car Sales

The total cars sold during January was 100,118 according to advices just received from the Ford Motor Company at Detroit, making the tenth consecutive month in which sales have run over the 100,000 mark.

And while this means that in the last ten months more than one million Ford cars have been sold, the really remarkable feature is that four of these months were fall and winter months during which the average expectation of sales is only about sixty per cent of the spring and summer business.

But since April last, the first month when sales topped the 100,000 line, there has been no slackening and every month since has brought in sales totalling more than 100,000, something unprecedented in the automobile world.

Several things have contributed to this unusual sales record, principal of which is the fact that since last October Ford prices have been at the lowest level ever reached in the history of the company. Organized sales drives have been most effectively carried on, resulting in an awakening of the motoring public to the fact that the Ford is as dependable and practical in winter as it is in summer.

Another noticeable factor is that a man of moderate means, ambitious to own an automobile and who a few months ago looked to much higher priced cars to satisfy his desire, is rapidly convincing himself that he can better afford a Ford car which calls for less investment, less upkeep expense and has the greatest service facilities. New improvements and refinements in all Ford cars, both open and enclosed models, have contributed much in this respect.

Production at the Ford plant for 1923 will be established at 6000 cars and trucks a day, and this output will be reached about April 1st. With the first month in the year starting off with sales in excess of 100,000, indications are that absorption is going to run close to this high production schedule.

PLANS TO DOUBLE ITALY'S ARMED STRENGTH
Rome.—(By the A. P.)—Army reorganization in Italy, under Premier Mussolini, will double the force of men under arms if one includes the national militia. The kingdom will have land forces numbering between 400,000 and 500,000 officers and men.

The reorganization work is being directed by General Diaz. The militia enters automatically into the regular army with the act of mobilization.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Thursday evening, March 8th. at 8:15 o'clock in Music hall. A treat is in store for all those who will attend, as Miss Powell's ability as a reader is well known in Jacksonville and vicinity. A cordial invitation is extended to all friends to be present. President Harker expects to spend Sunday in Cerro Gordo where he will occupy the pulpit of the local church. The students in the Household Arts department are having an interesting exhibit in the show windows of Andre & Andre. A description of this has already appeared in the local press. Interesting letters continue to come from the students. One letter received from Nellie Lindley, now in Hartling, Washington, reports weather conditions somewhat different from those in Jacksonville. She has to go through show that is drifted all the way from five to fifteen feet deep. The Theta Sigma society has over twenty of its former active members present for the initiation banquet held Saturday evening at the Colonial Inn. The absorbing interest among the students now is the inter-class basketball tournament which will be played the 6th, 7th and 8th of March. This is part of the regular work in the Physical Education department and some especially strong teams have been developed. Mr. and Mrs. H. I. King and Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Hare of Rushville were visitors at the college Friday to call on their daughters. The Young Woman's Christian as-association are conducting World Fellowship classes which started over a week ago. Between fifty and sixty students are enrolled in the following classes: The Near East, the Pacific Islands, South America and the Eight Weeks Club. The following are the leaders of the classes: Mae Virgin of the Near East, Esther Purl of the Eight Weeks Club, Beatrice Hasenstab of the Pacific Islands and Sarita Jones of South America. Miss Dorothy May Smith, who completed her requirements for the degree in Household Science the first of February, is now located in St. Louis in one of the cafeterias under the management of the Y. W. C. A. She is at present located in the Central Cafeteria and all the buying for the city is done through the Central organization. Miss Smith writes that they feed in her cafeteria about six hundred people at noon and three hundred in the evening. There is a monthly meeting of all the managers and assistants, together with other employees. These meetings each month are inspirational and for the building up of a strong and compact organization. Miss Smith says that she is engaged in her spare time in writing a paper on "Food Poisoning" for the National Restaurant Magazine. Miss Smith is to fill the place of each director during the vacation period this spring and summer, and as there are quite a number of Y. W. cafeterias in St. Louis, it will take well into the fall for her to make the rounds; by that time she herself will be appointed as a director, or tea room manager. Miss Smith thoroughly enjoys her work and is very much interested in the problems as they present themselves.

Centenary Methodist Church—C. D. Robertson, Pastor; Sunday school at 9:30 A. M. Superintendent, A. C. Metcalf; Morning worship at 10:45; Epworth League at 10:30 P. M., led by George Wetzel; Evening service at 7:30 P. M.

The evangelistic meetings are developing splendidly, and there is a nightly increase of attendance and interest. The enthusiasm grows constantly. The big chorus under the direction of Mr. Lind is a splendid feature of all the services. Father's Night, Mothers' Night and Official Board Night were observed last week, and were all times of deep impressiveness. The Junior Chorus, which will appear for the first time tonight, will be a feature of the meetings during next week. All the Sunday services will be evangelistic in character, and this day will doubtless mark a high place in the interest and power of the meeting.

IS WILLIAM'S ROMANCE AT END?

Disappearance of Couple From Streets Leads to Many Rumors—Attitude of Hermine Resented.

DOORN—The honeymoon of William and Hermine has at last come to an end, in the opinion of the inhabitants of Doorn. The pleasant walks up in arm along the solitary roads of a capann under the protection of a captain of the Dutch gendarmierie, ended abruptly several days ago. The disappearance of the couple from the village streets gave rise to numerous rumors to the effect that the former emperor was seriously ill, or that an attempt had been made upon his life, but investigation has failed to show any authority for either statement.

For about three weeks it has been reported that deep discord existed between the couple. One reason assigned was that William bore with difficulty the dictatorial tone of his wife who insisted that at the Castle everyone, not excluding her husband, should act and conduct himself according to her ideas. Hence Hermine has been in constant hot water, for her attitude was resented. Nevertheless both Hermine and her daughter were both present at a dinner given on the occasion of William's anniversary.

In spite of the evident tension, it is not believed that a rupture is imminent. Hermine's children are still living with their old nurse in the building at the entrance to the park, and Hermine occupies her apartment in the chateau not far from that of her husband.

This fact, however, seems to be

NO SUFFERING IN ILLINOIS DURING THE PAST WINTER

Peak of Winter Passes With No Suffering from Lack of Coal Supply—Home Coal
Used More Generally Than Ever Before
—Prices Thruout the State Are Given

CHICAGO.—Illinois has passed the peak of winter but little suffering from lack of coal and approaching spring finds most communities with ample supplies, according to correspondents' reports from all sections of the state.

Isolated instances of privation and a few fatalities as a result of coal shortage are shown in the reports, but dealers generally commented on the minimum amount of discomfort experienced when the situation as existed last fall was considered. Prudent and economic buying, a late and thus far generally mild winter, stimulated production and the ability of railroads in meeting a pressing problem of transportation, were advanced as contributing causes to the somewhat favorable situation.

Another feature indicated in the favorable balance and dealers' reports is that the majority of Illinois homes this winter have been heated with home products. Dealers reported that sales of Illinois soft coal in the various grades predominated, and in many cases exceeded all former records. General inability to obtain anthracite figured in soft coal consumption, dealers agreed in many of them pointed out unusual acceptance on the part of the public to make bituminous serve the purpose in the emergency.

Smokeless grades of bituminous from foreign fields have been in regular demand, according to reports, but with the exception of the larger terminals, the supply has been unequal. A large number of communities reported having had practically no hard coal thruout the winter. There it was obtainable, the prices were almost prohibitive to the average consumer.

Prices for Illinois coal proportionately have been equal. The reports show but slight fluctuation thus far thru the winter and in some localities prices quoted at the beginning of winter are still in effect—even during the recent cold period. Prices on imported coal have shown a similar range but freight rates to some sections have worked to double disadvantage.

Consumers in the Springfield area have had the cheapest home coal this winter, while that section bordering Lake Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa, have been paying top prices.

With but two or three exceptions, where there was no surplus or the demand was being met with but little delay, the statewide situation last month had a Special Scholarships Are Announced by New York University Under the Terms of A Bequest From the Late Ambassador F. C. Penfield.

NEW YORK, March 3.—American young men who look forward to careers as ambassadors, foreign ministers or other representatives of their government abroad may now be trained for such a career the same as for law, medicine or any other profession, according to an announcement today by New York University. The announcement makes public the fact that scholarships established at New York University by the late Ambassador Frederic Courtland Penfield are now operative and will be awarded to candidates whose qualifications best indicate a fitness for careers in the foreign service.

Fredric Courtland Penfield died last summer after a long career in the diplomatic service which began in the consul general's office in Cairo and ended in Vienna as United States ambassador where, thru the trying period of the World War, he handled the interests, not only of his own country, but of half a dozen other powers at war with Austria. His experiences taught him that, while what is known as "shirt sleeves diplomacy" may serve very well on occasion, there is also a need for the trained diplomat. This realization found expression in his will in a bequest of $80,000 to New York University for the founding of what should be known as "Penfield Scholarships" for training American youth "in diplomacy, international affairs and belles-lettres."

These scholarships, which are in part the realization of a plan long advocated by Chancellor Elmer Ellsworth Brown, close friend of Ambassador Penfield, for a school of international affairs at New York University, will be awarded by Dean Earle B. Babcock of the Graduate School of New York University. Two of these scholarships for $1,000 each will be awarded to applicants holding the master's degree from an approved college or university or who expect to receive the degree in June, 1923, who plan to devote their entire time to study during the academic year 1923-24.

In addition to the two $1,000 scholarships, there will be two of an annual value of $800, three of an annual value of $500 and several minor scholarships. College students who desire to participate in these scholarships should communicate with Dean Earle B. Babcock of the Graduate School of New York University, 100 Washington Square, East, New York City, giving him a statement of their academic preparation.

RIVER PLATE WOOL STILL COMING TO U. S.

Buenos Aires.—(By the A. P.)—Predictions that the new American tariff on wool, which went into effect last September, would practically prohibit the exportation of River Plate wool to the United States have not been fulfilled, according to articles in "Comments on Argentine Trade," published by the American Chamber of Commerce here.

On the contrary, says the writer, the United States has bought more wool in this market than any other country since the tariff of 31 cents a pound on clean content became effective.

REMITTANCES TO JAPAN DECREASE

Tokio.—Remittances from Japanese residing abroad appear to have fallen last year to less than one-third of the total of boom years. The amounts handled by Yokohama Specie Bank may be taken as a fair index. In 1918 the homebound remittances thru this Bank amounted to 1,834,200 yen, in 1921, they dropped to 916,600 yen and last year to 463,500 yen. The largest decrease was in the sum sent from the United States, but the trend was the same everywhere.

BABSON FINDS BUSINESS BETTER IN CENTRAL WEST

Car Loadings 15% Over Last Year

CHICAGO, March 3.—Roger W. Babson, today released his third installment of his Annual Survey of Business Conditions in the United States and Canada. He is here in treats of what he calls the "Industrial West"—that great section immediately tributary to Chicago, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Michigan and Wisconsin.

"These states were once wholly agricultural, but are rapidly changing into an industrial section. Now factories are springing up every day—the young generation are leaving farming for building, manufacturing and trade. Yet the total area under cultivation continues to hold its own."

"Every section of America," says Mr. Babson, "has its best barometer of business. For New England it is the number of spindles in operation—for Pennsylvania the number of blast furnaces, for New York the total foreign trade, etc. The best barometer for the 'Industrial West' is the total car loadings at Chicago. These since January 1st, 1923 are running well ahead of the corresponding weeks of 1922—and compare well with the total car loadings for the entire country. For the current month of 1922 the net car loadings were about 2,500,000. For the current month of 1923 the car loadings will show figures over 15 percent greater, possibly final figures will show an increase of 500,000 cars. Moreover, of this increase only 60,000 were of an increase in coal loadings. In other words—if the car loadings of the current month are 2,500,000 only about 800,000 of these will be coal cars compared with over 740,000 coal cars loaded during the same period in 1922. This shows that the great increase is in building materials, live stock, merchandise, etc.—there being no appreciable change in grain car loadings. It is true that these figures apply to the entire country; but proportionally they also apply to this section of which Chicago is the center."

"The middle cities and states are recording increases of from 10 to 35 percent over a year ago. South Bend, Ind., leads compared with last year, but Des Moines, Ia.; Peoria, Illinois and Kalamazoo, Michigan are closely catching up. Indianapolis and Terre Haute are not doing as well as they should do, owing to some unknown reason. The largest cities of this section—such as Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit and Milwaukee—are reporting about the same as last year. Some think this is due to the natural lag of the large cities; but others believe that the medium sized cities are due to a much larger proportional growth. I am inclined to this belief. If so, the best opportunities during the next few years will be in the medium sized cities which have better available labor, lower rents, and pleasanter living conditions. The heavy increase in railroad freight rates and the development of good roads should also help the medium sized city."

"The automotive industry in this section continues to thrive. Many talk about this industry reaching a point of saturation. Of course, it will come some day; but when that time comes it will require fully as many persons as are now engaged in order to keep the market saturated. It is true that some of the smaller companies will be forced out of business and all companies will tend to build lighter and cheaper cars, but the industry as a whole will continue prosperous for many years to come. This means much to Michigan, Illinois and Indiana, 1923 will be a good automobile year."

"This section tributary to Chicago is also profiting from the great residential building boom now on thruout the country. I have already referred to the cause of this boom—namely, the exodus of people from the cities to suburbs and the country due to the convenience of the automobile. The first industries to benefit from the building boom were the cement and brick people, then the lumber and steel interests began to prosper. Now the copper, paints, and other industries are picking up. This sequence is invariably true—also when the boom culminates and the turn downward comes, the cement and brick people will be the first to feel the decline. The new roads in process of construction are also temporarily helping this section, altho I fear that some of the sections will not feel so prosperous when the time comes to pay off the road bonds, which they are now so freely issuing."

"The last great industry to benefit from a building boom is the furniture industry. After a house is built, new furniture is always purchased, even tho the family moves from some other house. Now nearly four-fifths of the furniture manufactured in the United States is made in this 'Industrial West.' I forecast great activity for this industry during 1923. There is liable to be even a furniture shortage. Those who contemplate buying new furniture during 1923 should make their purchases at once. The industry is not one that can quickly expand. It also is very dependent upon transportation, which is liable to congestion thruout the year. Remember that there are

BUSINESS EXPERT TO SPEAK HERE MARCH 15

Frank Jewel Raymond Will Address Chamber of Commerce a Week From Next Thursday Evening—"Business Mystery" to Be Subject.

It is now certain that Frank Jewel Raymond, the nationally known business expert and lecturer on business subjects, will appear in this city for an address before the Chamber of Commerce on the evening of Thursday, March 15. Mr. Raymond notified Secretary Welch that this date was open for a lecture in Illinois, and steps were taken Saturday to close the agreement with the speaker for that time.

Mr. Raymond is now in Topeka, Kans., where he is conducting a three-day institute for the Chamber of Commerce and business men of that city. "Business Mystery" is the topic of his lecture and press notices have it that he is the master of his subject and the art of presenting it. One comment is to the effect that Mr. Raymond never speaks a word without saying something. He is a hard hitting presenter of facts, and mingles his presentation with clever wit and biting epigrams.

Everyone who is interested in any way in mercantile lines is invited to attend the meeting on March 15, to hear Mr. Raymond speak. It will be in the form of a Membership Forum meeting, and is bound to attract wide interest.

London.—(By the A. P.)—London is holding in bond 4,500,000 gallons of rum for maturing purposes. The liquor is stored in 40,000 puncheons at the West India docks. MANY BOYS IN EL PASO ARE CONFIRMED DRUG ADDICTS OFFICIAL SAYS

More Than One Hundred are Afflicted, Mrs. Emma Webster, Probation Officer Asserts
—Source of Supply Furnished by Smugglers is Belief—Found in all Walks of Life

EL PASO, Texas.—El Paso has a drug problem to solve, and according to city and county officials, it is a serious one. Mrs. Emma Webster, county probation officer, in a statement asserts that more than 100 boys here are confirmed drug addicts. Daily she is confronted by heart-broken parents, who have just found that their children are using narcotics in some form. One belief expressed by those who claim to know is that a modern "Fagin" is teaching young people to use narcotics. Smugglers are believed to be the chief source of supply. Mrs. Webster said that many children in Juarez are forming the habit or already are confirmed addicts to the use of various drugs.

Curiosity is one of the chief factors in the forming of the habit, authorities say as many will try it once, ignorant of the misery that follows. A few years ago, according to corporation Judge Charles Pollock, one could have counted the drug users on the fingers of one hand. Now, he says there is an average of one a day at least, before him, not counting the many who fall into the hands of federal officers and are sent to Leavenworth prison for cure.

Drug addicts are not now confined to the poverty stricken, but are found in all walks of life, from the poorest to the members of rich social circles, college boys and girls and various employees of the business world, according to these authorities.

Judge Manual Ayala, of the Juarez lower court declares that the tricks employed by narcotic vendors are many and varied and constitute a difficult problem for the officers.

One trick was discovered when a man was arrested for selling small match boxes at 25 cents each. Investigation proved that a drug was wrapped in small papers and hidden beneath the by an aerial camera placed in the Another ruse is the hiding of the drug in cigar packages.

AN HONEST AND FRIENDLY COMMUNITY.

Miss Maud Royden, known abroad as the "Little Preacher", and generally accepted as one of the leading minds of the day, spoke in Springfield Friday evening on the subject, "Can We Set the World in Order?" She told how the most public spirited young men, those of the greatest latent leadership were the first to enlist in the war. These were among the first to fall in battle also. Hence Europe is deprived of just the type of leadership she needs for such a time as this. Today the countries over the waters are seething with hatred and fear. They are in a labyrinth of despair. Is there no way out? If none can be found, if Europe morally and economically collapses, the United States cannot remain unaffected.

Is there no way out? The fatalist would answer with human nature as it is, there will always be war. Take care and save yourself if you can. But there is another answer, namely, change human nature.

When man first conceived the idea of the Panama canal, he did not philosophize thus—with the material universe as it is and with this mountain range between, there is no use trying to join the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. Rather he started the task and though he failed it was not because his ideal was impossible to realize but it was because the yellow fever killed off the white men. Yet the ideal remained latent in men's minds. In due time the scientists investigated the cause of this yellow fever; they drained the swamps, thus ridding the country of the mosquito and removing the cause of this dread disease. The canal was then carried thru to a successful conclusion; the ideal was at last realized.

We have had dreams of a warless world inhabited by a race of men honest, friendly and powerful. Yet in each decade we see the ravages of war and the engendering of hatred and jealousy. We have failed to realize our visions because we have not acknowledged that there are spiritual laws as well as material laws and that a civilization built in defiance of spiritual law is doomed to crash, even as a building erected in defiance of the laws of gravity.

Superficial political and diplomatic measures will not accomplish the desired end. This is simply painting the pump. We must purify the water in the well. We must discover for ourselves and others sources of spiritual power which will enable us to triumph over our own hatred, jealousy and selfishness and to live our lives in accordance with the spiritual laws of the universe.

Keen students of our modern life agree that the next forward step of civilization must be along spiritual lines.

"Come, let us reason together" that we may achieve this spiritual mastery of our lives and that we may make Jacksonville an honest and friendly community where the spiritual laws of God are known and respected.

To this end, ten of our local churches are uniting for a two weeks' series of special pre-Easter meetings beginning Monday evening, March 12, at the Grace church. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness."

GOOD PROGRAM GIVEN AT BETHEL CHURCH

It was a large and enthusiastic audience that met at Bethel A. M. E. church Friday night. The people came to help boost the pastor, Rev. R. H. Hackley, who left Saturday afternoon for Washington, D. C., to attend the twentieth annual National Negro Educational conference which convenes in that city.

Rev. J. N. Kirk, superintendent of Bethel Sunday school, asked all the colored churches to come and help boost the meeting and send their pastor away with a good purse and spirit. Bethel Mt. Emory and McCabe churches responded to this invitation gladly and the pastors and their congregations made the meeting a grand success.

Among the able speakers present were Rev. T. H. Tull, pastor of Grace M. E. church, Messrs. Miller, Welr, W. C. Braddish, Tom Hopper, and Dr. A. H. Kennewell. All made excellent addresses.

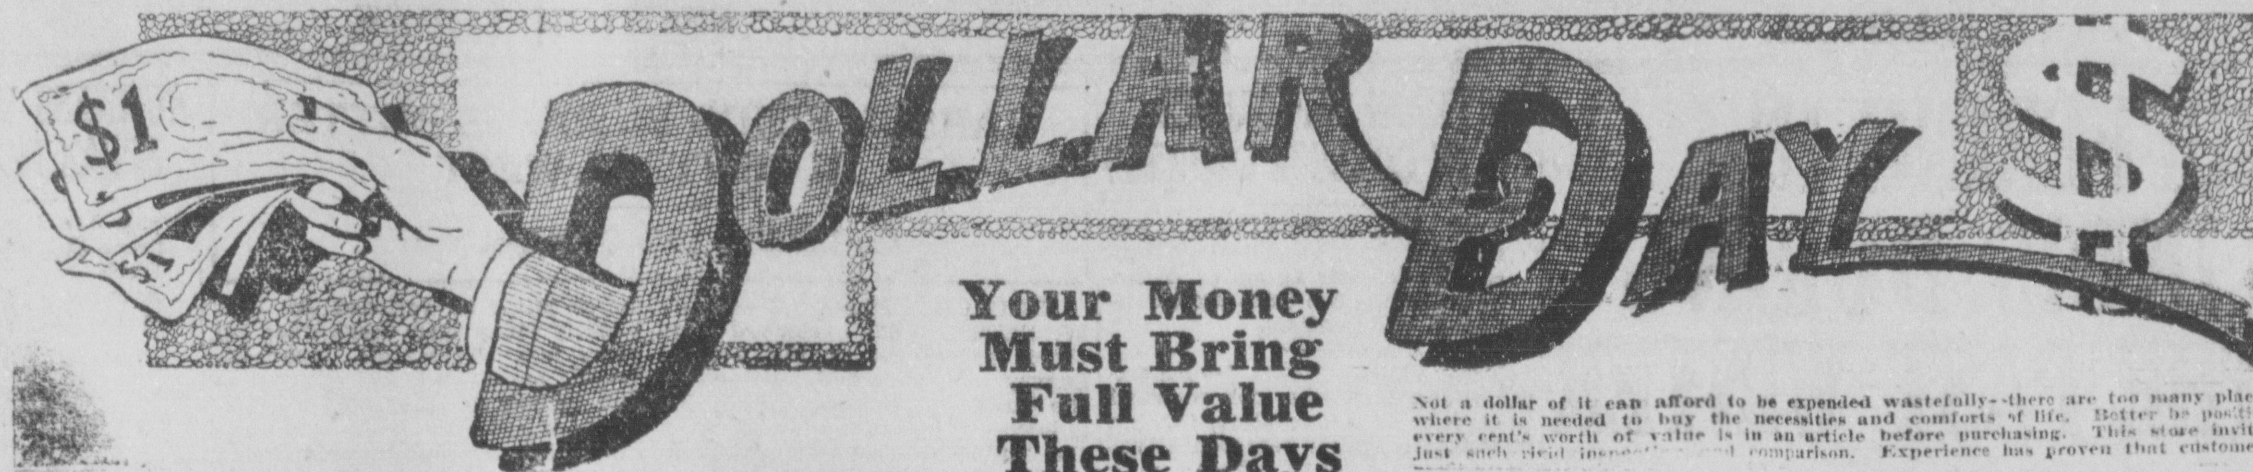

The church choir furnished several selections. Mrs. Ida Muse read resolutions from the West Side Art club, with congratulations, and Miss Susie Lynch and Mrs. Alonzo Walton rendered a vocal duet.

A committee of ladies from the various churches served lunch and the money received therefrom together with the free will offering taken up, the neat sum of $95 was given Rev. Hackley on his expenditures.

BURMA FOR THE BURMANS

(By Wayne Gard in the Nation)

When in April, 1858, a mission from the United States, with a letter from the president expressing a desire for friendly relations with Burma, was received in Mandalay, that royal city was a blossoming center of Oriental culture, newly built palace was one of the few imposing examples of modern architecture in Asia. Its streets, blazing with silk longyis and gilded pagodas, were an attraction to pilgrims. That glory long since has flown, day the palace is dilapidated and rotting; little there is to interest the infrequent tourist who visits it. The city is dwindling in population. For Burma is no longer a sovereign kingdom. Its place in the map of Asia is no longer indicated by a separate color. Few Americans would be able to say more of it than to designate it as the easternmost province of British India. Yet it is only nominally that Burma is a part of India. The Burmans have little in common with the people of India proper. Mongoloid by race and language, the Burman differs from the Indians also in his staunch adherence to Buddhism, a religion which has almost entirely died out in India, its mother country. Although Burma for more than a century has been a field for Christian missions, the present Christian population is less than 2 per cent of the whole. The dominant religion is Buddhism, with an admixture of animism. It was on account of these differences that Burma was specifically excluded from the India reforms scheme.

The one interest which the people of Burma has in common with the peoples of India is disaffection toward the present government. Yet the national movement of Burma differs from that of India in its origin and in its support. The Burma nationalism is less dependent upon leaders. In India, Brahmins and others have been going about the country, urging the people to demand home rule; in Burma, the movement is of the people. Every village has its political organization. There is no Gandhi in Burma; no Gandhi is needed. Then, too, Burma nationalism is distinctly a Buddhist movement. It is the Buddhist monks, more than any others, who have taught the Burmans to seek self-government. The student strike and university boycott, inaugurated late in 1920, was religious rather than political. It was shortly after this that a rule was enforced prohibiting Europeans from visiting Buddhist pagodas without removing their footwear. Non-violent non-cooperation has been preached as the most effective method of attaining home rule. This attitude was displayed in January, 1922, when the nationalists schools of Rangoon gave their examinations on the day of the Prince of Wales's arrival.

In passing the Burma reforms act, the British parliament has attempted to pacify the Burman nationalists and to give Burma a measure of self government. Whether this will prove successful or not cannot now be said. In certain respects Britain has been more liberal with Burma than with India. The important subjects of forestry and education are to be placed in the hands of Burmans; the franchise is extended to women.

In the opinion of many Burmans, the reforms were offered too late. They hold that political conditions are now past reform, that the diarchy proposed by the government is undesirable, and that only complete home rule will satisfy the Burmese people. These convictions were voiced in unmistakable terms at the conference of Burmese associations, held at Mandalay in October, 1921. Since the publication of the Burma reforms and the appointment of Sir Harecourt Butler to be the first governor of Burma, political discussion as to what attitude should be taken toward the reforms has been rife in all quarters. "To boycott or not to boycott" is the question of the day in Burma. The first formal action on the part of the people was a rejection of the reforms by the council of Burmese associations, the strongest and most representative of Burmese nationalists, by a vote of 148 to 58, in July, 1922. At a later meeting, the council passed resolutions condemning the whole diarchical scheme as unacceptable. This decision resulted in the secession of a number of dissenting members, including eight leaders who published a manifesto setting forth their attitude. These withdrawing leaders were of the opinion that the nationalists could best further their interests, not by boycotting the rural self governing bodies, but by electing their own men to these bodies seeking their ends from within rather than from without. As the situation stands at present the split among the nationalists is of such a serious nature that an organized or effective boycott of the reforms will hardly be possible.

Yet, sooner or later, Burma will regain her place in the map of Asia, whether within the British empire or without it, time and tact will determine. Known for centuries as "The Irishman of the East," the Burman under foreign rule has become restive and sometimes surly. His national emblem is the peacock, a fact of which he is always conscious. Though he does not deny that his fathers were often misruled under the Burmese kings, he remembers that these kings were Burmans, not foreigners. Though he makes no attempt to minimize the benefits which British rule has brought—the law and order, the sanitation, the schools, the hospitals—he is continually aware of the price which has been taken—subjection to foreign rule. He remembers, too, that he lives in a country more literate than Italy, free from the famines which bring devastation to many parts of Asia, rich in exports of rice, timber, and oil; and he believes that Burma is worthy of the independence which she seeks.

MODERN HEALTH IDEALS

Each winter for several years the Congregational church has conducted a forum on Sunday evening from which the live topics of the day are presented by authoritative speakers.

It has been the efforts to secure men who were not only unusually qualified to present the subjects but also those who were known to have the faculty of making the subject attractive. Tonight they are especially fortunate in having secured Dr. Allen Craig of Chicago, assistant director general of the American College of Surgeons, who will present "Modern Health Ideals." Dr. Craig has had a wide and varied experience in Canada, and Nova Scotia as well as the United States from which to develop the subject.

He is a pleasing speaker and will be able to present the great work the College of Surgeons is carrying on all over North America in close cooperation with the American Hospital Association, the American Catholic Hospital Association, and the various public health organizations.

We feel sure that our citizens who have already shown unusual zeal in promoting all better health movements will be interested as well as profited by hearing Dr. Craig tonight.

"THE BAT" AT THE GRAND TUESDAY

Wagenhals and Kemper, two of the most successful theatrical managers in the country, bring the greatest dramatic success of all years, "The Bat" by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood, to the Grand Theatre next Tuesday night.

"The Bat," which is thrilling, mysterious and at the same time screamingly funny, stands out sharp and clear above all dramatic plays offered during the past generation. "The Bat" played for more than two years at the Morosco Theatre, New York and in addition, another company, with a run of over one year at Chicago, broke all records for popularity in that city. It's a triumph in London also, capacity audiences having been the rule since it opened nearly a year ago. On its present triumphant tour, "The Bat" has played to absolute capacity in every city in which it has appeared and there is every indication that its performance in this city will equal that record.

Just what "The Bat" is all about—that's a secret. In fact, wherever "The Bat" has been played, the audience and critics are earnestly requested not to disclose the secret of the story and they never do. Suffice to say, it is one thrill after another, interspersed with countless laughs. Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood, co-authors of "The Bat" are two of the most successful playwrights in America today. In fact, the record of their collaborations fails to show a single failure. Their first play, years ago, was "Seven Days." Great as was its success, however, "The Bat" has far surpassed it.

Wagenhals and Kemper presented "The Bat" in identically the same manner as it was played in New York and Chicago and the cast is exceptionally strong.

Dr. Allen Craig of Chicago speaks on "Modern Health Ideals," at Community Forum, Congregational church tonight 7:30.

CHICAGO, March 3.—Breaking of the drought in the winter wheat belt led to a material setback of prices in the wheat market today. The close was unsettled, 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 lower with May $1.16 1/2 to $1.17 and July $1.13 1/2 to $1.13 1/2. Corn finished 1/2 to 1c down; oats off 1/2 to 1c and provisions varying from unchanged figures to 5c decline.

With rains reported at a number of points in Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas and with a forecast of general rain or snow throughout the entire winter crop belt, west and southwest the wheat market encountered heavy selling especially at the outset. A bearish summary which was one of the big grain companies here issued in regard to supplies had an evident further depressing effect on values, the suggestion being that the world's carry over of wheat at the end of the season July 1, would amount to 247,000,000 bushels as compared with 178,000,000 bushels last year. Estimates that on the declining price, 1,000,000 bushels chiefly Canadian wheat had been taken for Europe failed to bring about any important rally, although commission houses were rather aggressive buyers at times. An advance in Liverpool quotations was also practically ignored. The main reason urged for buying was that the market had sufficiently discounted bearish factors and that hereafter the removal of hedges as wheat and flour goes into consumption would give the bulls the balance of power.

Corn and oats followed the downward course of the wheat market. Primary receipts of corn for the week totaled more than 10,000,000 bushels, surpassing the volume last week as well as a year ago.

Provisions were easier with grain despite firmness of hog values.

MEETING TO AID
STATE POLICE BILL

Meeting scheduled for next Thursday under auspices of State Chamber of Commerce. Chambers of Commerce in 87

Illinois cities, and other organizations with three-quarters of a million members, will send delegations to a state wide rally to be held in Springfield at noon next Thursday, March 8, in behalf of a state police force bill for Illinois. The meeting has been called by the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, which has led in the fight for a state police for the last two years.

Captain George P. Dutton, deputy superintendent of the New York state troopers, will be the chief speaker. The New York state troopers occupy a place in the front ranks of state police forces in the United States. They have reduced crime, saved the state more than their total cost of operation, and won the respect and co-operation of every class of citizens, including one governor who attempted to disband them and later apologized for his mistake.

Senate bill 49, introduced by Senator Henry M. Dunlap of Savoy, provides for the creation of a state police in Illinois. This bill has been recommended for passage by the senate committee. It has the active endorsement not only of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, but of the local Chamber of Commerce in eighty-seven Illinois cities, the executive committee of the American Legion of Illinois, the Illinois Agricultural association and forty-three county farm bureaus, the Illinois Bankers' association, the Insurance Federation of Illinois, the Building Contractors' association of Illinois, and the Chicago Motor club and various other motor clubs representing 700,000 automobile owners.

The state police committee of the Illinois chamber, which speaks for other organizations, is composed of John S. Brown, manufacturer of Monmouth, chairman; Frank F. Barth, of Chicago, secretary; L. M. Harvey of Ottawa, hotel proprietor; W. G. Johnston, of Rock Island, banker; E. P. Imboden of Decatur, farmer; Royal M. Allen of the Chicago Motor club; George E. Baker, of Belleville, manufacturer; Albert Eldredge, of Aris, insurance; C. Olson, of Chicago, secretary insurance federation of Illinois; M. A. Graettinger of Chicago, secretary Illinois Bankers' association; and Leo P. Cummings of Chicago, banker.
